KCUW welcomes program proposals that entertain, inform and engage the Umatilla Reservation community. We hope KCUW will help facilitate community dialogue and inform citizens of Reservation issues, projects and people. KCUW seeks to support innovating, inclusive and impartial programming. Proposals will be given preference for airing:

- if they are in alignment with KCUW’s mission

  (KCUW-LP FM strives to provide high quality local news, health and lifestyle information, music and entertainment, sports, community events, discussions on issues of local interest, and other programs of interest to the Umatilla Reservation community.)

- if they provide for participation by the community

- if they promote the social and cultural development of the Umatilla Reservation community, and

- when they are hosted by a volunteer or staff member who is knowledgeable on a topic or genre of music and who is able to present multiple sides of a particular topic or issue.
